IT PREVENTIVE MAINTENANCE

Objectives

To keep track of the maintenance update of a workstation by providing systematic inspection, detection, and correction of incipient failures either before they occur or before they develop into major defects.

This set of guidelines is designed to achieve the following:
Provide a clear set of rules and policies in implementing IT Preventive Maintenance.

Scope

It comprises the policies and procedures in implementing IT Preventive Maintenance which applies to SDCA Community.

Policies

The MIS Office shall be responsible for scheduling preventive maintenance with the approval from the MIS Officer

IT Preventive Maintenance activities shall include:

Software Maintenance

Virus Scanning

Anti-virus update

Removal of viruses

Removal of non-work related software

Defragmentation

Data Cleaning

Hardware Maintenance

Cleaning/ testing of computer components, peripherals and cables

Replacement of computer components, peripherals and cables

Backup of Files Backup all work-related files All faculty, school and administrative staffs of SDCA are expected to coordinate with the proposed schedule of IT preventive maintenance.

Scope

It comprises the policies and procedures in implementing IT Preventive Maintenance which applies to SDCA Community.

Policies

The MIS Office shall be responsible for scheduling preventive maintenance with the approval from the MIS Officer

IT Preventive Maintenance activities shall include:

All faculty, school and administrative staffs of SDCA are expected to coordinate with the proposed schedule of IT preventive maintenance.

REQUEST FOR REPAIR OF IT EQUIPMENT

Objectives

This set of guidelines aims to achieve the following:

Provide information on the appropriate procedures for repair of IT Equipment.

Organize documentation and reports of requests for repair of IT Equipment.

Scopes

It comprises the policies and procedures for requesting of repair of IT equipment.

Policy

The MIS Office shall manage and control all requests for repair of IT equipment at St. Dominic College of Asia.

SOFTWARE DEVELOPMENT / MODIFICATION

Objectives

This set of guidelines is designed to achieve the following:

To develop different Information System needed by the different offices/department/units/schools of the college.

To modify and enhance the existing Information System as needs arises.

Scope

It comprises the procedure on how to request for the development or modification of Information System within the college.

Policies

MIS Office shall be responsible for developing, maintaining, and participating in a System Development Life Cycle (SDLC) for institution system development projects. All software developed in-house which runs on production systems must be developed according to the SDLC. At a minimum, this plan should address the areas of preliminary analysis or feasibility study; risk identification and mitigation; systems analysis; general design; detail design; development; quality assurance and acceptance testing; Implementation; and post-implementation maintenance and review. This methodology ensures that the software will be adequately documented and tested before it is used for critical institution information.

All production systems must have designated Owners and Custodians for the critical information they process.

MIS Office must perform periodic risk assessments of production systems to determine whether the controls employed are adequate.

All production systems must have an access control system to restrict who can access the system as well as restrict the privileges available to these Users. A designated access control administrator (who is not a regular User on the system in question) must be assigned for all production systems. Where resources permit, there should be a separation between the production, development, and test environments. This will ensure that security is rigorously maintained for the production system, while the development and test environments can maximize productivity with fewer security restrictions. Where these distinctions have been established, development and test staff must not be permitted to have access to production systems. Likewise, all production software testing must utilize sanitized information.

All application-program-based access paths other than the formal user access paths must be deleted or disabled before software is moved into production.
